CHICAGO LAND COMPANY—SALE of LOTS at PUBLIC AUCTION.—The Trustees of the Chicago Land Company had advertised a large sale of Lots to be made at Public Auction in this city on the 5th instan, but attracted the attention of capitalists generally through the country, many of whom came here to attend the sale and available and the country and the major of the country and the country

tracted the situation of capitalists, growth, the sale and available the country, many of whom came here to strend the sale and available the country, many of the opportunity to purchase property in the cap of Chicago.

As the sale did not take place, it is proper that an explanation about the made of the cause which led to the disappointment of to many persons. Mr. Robert J. Walker, one of the original stockholders in the Comment, claimed to have a right to extuse additional shares of stock, which the Trustees refused to recognise under the advice of their Commel; and Mr. Walker field a hill in Equity in the United States Court on the day preceding the sale, and prayed for an injunction to restruct the sale until the question of his right was settled. Mr. Walker declined the proposition to allow the public sale in proceed in accordance with the notice, and which it was believed would promote the interest of all parties, with the understanding that no distribution of the proceeds should be made until the question of his right was settled. As sipulation was finally entered in the suit, by direction of Judge Drummond, that the Trustees might proceed with the sales of the property without further hindersnee, upon their envering into an engagement that they would retain in their hands so meaber the finally declided that he is entitled to the shares of stock which he claims; so that there is an longer any impositionent in the way of sales. So much delay had, however, been caused by Mr. Walker's proceedings, that the stockholders deemed it best to postpone until animm any further public sale of the property. In the meantime, however, the Trustees are fully authorized to sell at private asks my of the property, and they have already sold a large amount to responsible parties for the property and they have already sold a large amount to responsible parties for the property and in now open for occupancy and improvement.

It is proper to add that the property of this Company lies spone both sides of the North Branch of t

st., New-York.
